

AARP is fighting all across the country to ensure that residential electric and natural gas utility rates are just and reasonable and to uphold access to affordable and reliable telecommunications services, including telephone and high-speed broadband.

It's why we challenge rate hikes and charges that are unfair or unreasonable.

UPDATED: JUNE 2018